Dear Jim:

Confirming our conversation re that airline, yesterday I received the attached.

In that you are "in transit," would you be good enough to take this up with Bill Colby.

Cordially,

Stuart Symington

Because Southern was granted a supplemental air carrier certificate by the Civil Aeronautics Board for a special purpose, we believe that certificate should now be cancelled and the air line dissolved since it is our understanding that the special purpose no longer exists. On the other hand, there would be nothing wrong with a sale of the assets of the Company on dissolution and this is what we believe should be done.
